A Quick Vote Helps Local Business, Napa Valley Wine Academy

In a bid for a $150,000 Grant

Vote Online Before October 17th

Monday, September 29, 2014. Napa, CA. Napa Valley Wine Academy, a local wine school providing career-advancing wine certification programs, has applied for a $150,000 grant from Chase Bank as part of a newly launched program, Mission Main Street Grants—and needs your vote of support.

The Napa Valley Wine Academy is proud of supporting the local community with expert programs that inspire and empower students to advance to the next level in their wine industry careers. Since its inception, the Academy has also supported a scholarship program to help individuals who need additional assistance in reaching their goals.

By voting here, you can help us in achieving the 250 votes we need by October 17th to obtain eligibility: https://www.missionmainstreetgrants.com/business/detail/47489 using Facebook connect; or by voting at www.MissionMainStreetGrants.com.

Full eligibility requirements are available in the Program Rules https://www.missionmainstreetgrants.com/rules.

"As Napa Valley Wine Academy continues to grow as a leading provider of certifications for career advancement in the wine industry, we look to this grant to help propel us forward," said Chief Education Officer and Founder, Christian Oggenfuss, DWS.

Through Mission Main Street Grants, Chase will award $3 million to small business across America. All businesses that apply for a grant and meet the eligibility requirements will receive a special offer from Premier Sponsor, Google. In addition, the 20 grant recipients will be eligible to receive a trip to Google for an exclusive small business marketing workshop with Google experts and a Google Chromebook laptop.

The 20 grant recipients will be announced in January 2015.

About Mission Main Street Grants

Demonstrating an ongoing commitment to small business, Chase launched Mission Main Street Grants, a program that will award 20 grants of $150,000 to small businesses across America. By completing a business profile, a grant questionnaire, and meeting relevant eligibility requirements, small businesses will have access to special offers from the Premier Sponsor, Google. Chase is committed to helping small businesses so they can take big steps for their business and community.

About The Napa Valley Wine Academy: A fresh take on traditional wine and spirits education

Napa Valley Wine Academy was created in Napa Valley in 2011 by industry professionals Christian Oggenfuss DWS, Catherine Bugue, DWS, and Jurg Oggenfuss. Napa Valley Wine Academy is a Napa Valley based wine school that conducts wine and spirits educational classes in Napa Valley and across the US. Our expert instructors ensure that all of our courses are both informative, experiential, and fun.

The Napa Valley Wine Academy offers WSET® Certification and Certified Specialist of Wine courses, in Napa, San Francisco, Los Angles, Santa Barbara, and Tampa, Fl. We are an Approved Program Provider with the Wine & Spirits Educational Trust in London as well as a private school member of the Society of Wine Educators, and the developers of the American Wine Studies certification program. We also offer continuing wine education classes through our Wine Academy CoursesTM.
